

Bernard Tulkens

Contact: 87 Richmond Road, London E8 3AA, England
020 7249 1934 - Mob. 07718 766 466
b.tulkens@tectonics-architects.com
Born: 11 December 1964, Oakland, California, USA
Nationalities: Belgian and American
Languages: French (mother tongue), Dutch, English, Italian, basic German

Professional Qualification

Registered Architect in Belgium [1990] ISAE La Cambre, Brussels
Registered Architect in the U.K. 058468J [1992],
Corporate member of the RIBA , 07556106

Professional Experience

TECTONICS architects limited, London founded in May 2001

Projects include:

- University museum, (UCL), Louvain-La-Neuve, Belgium.
Selected (4) for the second stage of the 11m euros Museum competition
- St Hilda's Community Centre Creche: entrance and external areas
- Apex House Hotel Wembley, 12,000m2 (current)
- Boundary Playground in Shoreditch, London,(completed 2004)
RIBA exhibition Public Space by design, 2005)
- Islamic Community Centre extension, Shoreditch, London
RIBA exhibition 'Recreation by design' exhibition June 2003)
- Imperial College Visual Arts Gallery, South Kensington (2002)
- Residential Projects in London
- Guy Street Peace Park, Southwark..Collaboration with Artist Sarah Staton. The Project was awarded £8,000 (Art for Architecture grant) by the RSA.

December 1999- March 2001

DAVID CHIPPERFIELD ARCHITECTS LTD, London

Senior Associate from March 2000

Projects include competition for the German Embassy in Tokyo , Social Housing in Madrid, office building in Barcelona, a feasibility study for the Maaspoort Theatre in The Netherlands, and scheme design for a new studio for Antony Gormley in London.

August 1994 to August 1999

KOHN PEDERSEN FOX ASSOCIATES (International) PA, London

Associate Partner from December 1996.

World Trade Center, Amsterdam, The Netherlands.

Renovation and extension (25,000m2) of the existing WTC total 100,000m2.

De Hoftoren, The Hague, The Netherlands

140 m office tower for ING Vastgoed Ontwikkeling

Provinciehuis Zuid-Holland, The Hague, The Netherlands

23,000 m2 new built and 17,000m2 renovation of the provincial parliament

October 1992-April 1993

STUDIO MASSIMILIANO FUKSAS, Rome

Experience includes work on the Law Faculty extension, Limoges, The Shanghai International Urban Design consultation, Shanghai, China and the winning designs for the Multimedia Library and Urban Design competition, Limoges, and the Maison Des Arts competition, Bordeaux, France.

May 1990-September 1992

SKIDMORE, OWINGS & MERRILL, Inc., London.

Experience includes work on large commercial developments at: Canary Wharf, London; Office development in Paris

London, July 2009